July 29th — Meeting Day: Rest

Luke 12:13-21 Overview:

A random person in the crowd asks Jesus to settle a squabble between siblings. Jesus knows it has more to do with misplaced priorities and values, so Jesus tells a story: A wealthy person continued to accumulate so much wealth that larger spaces were made with which to store it. Striving only to amass wealth and notoriety, the sibling forgot what it is to be human—that is, investing in relationships yields true riches that grow beyond your life.

Open Discussion Questions

WHAT IS IT TO YOU?

Inclusion

Rest

Relationships remind us to rest from work and be present to each other. What is your relationship with money or 'success'?

What happens in your body when you settle into it in order to share space-time with someone?

What does rest look like for you right now?
