

Monthly Theme: Motivation

November 10 & 11: Justice

'[They] asked him a question, "Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man's brother dies, leaving a wife but no children, the man shall marry the widow and raise up children for his brother. Now there were seven brothers; the first married, and died childless; then the second and the third married her, and so in the same way all seven died childless. Finally the woman also died."

~ Luke 20:28-32

"I want to be remembered as someone who used herself and anything she could touch to work for justice and freedom.... I want to be remembered as one who tried." —Dorothy Height

Invitation to Justice

Center with: Too often I nitpick in order to be 'right,' Just God. Justice must be lived; righteousness runs through my veins. I am made for this work; I am strong enough to persist. It is holy work; it is just.

Breathe In:

I am not made for indifference

Breathe Out:

I want justice for all of us

Reflection:

Nitpicking can get exhausting, and accomplishes nothing. What are you picking apart to avoid living into re-creating justice?

Righteousness is in our DNA, doing justice a feature of being God's image. How might living into this holy truth shift how you speak with others?
