

Monthly Theme: Motivation

November 19 & 20: Thanksgiving

“[Jesus] is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation; for in him all things in heaven and on earth were created, things visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or powers—all things have been created through him and for him. He himself is before all things, and in him all things hold together.”

~ Colossians 1:15-17

“The world is a great library, and fruit trees are some of the books wherein we may read and see plainly the attributes of God, his power, wisdom, goodness ... for as trees (in a metaphorical sense) are books, so like-wise in the same sense they have a voice, and speak plainly to us, and teach us many good lessons.” — Ralph Austen

Invitation to Thanksgiving

Center with: I embody creation; every cell contains the imprint of the sun...and the seed of an oak. I bathe in the work of the trees; my cells enlivened by the stuff of stars.

Breathe In:

I contain the wisdom of trees

Breathe Out:

I'm made to shine

Reflection:

Where do you see evidence of God?

What keeps you from noticing those evidences? from being (shining) evidence of God?

I will be open to see God today by:
